HLTAID011 Provide First Aid

About the Course

Whether for work, sport, or leisure activities at home the ability to perform first aid can save someone's life. This course will provide you with an opportunity to gain the knowledge and skills required to provide first aid in a variety of situations and to a variety of casualties.

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to provide a first aid response to a casualty in line with first aid guidelines determined by the Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) and other Australian national peak clinical bodies.

The unit applies to all persons who may be required to provide a first aid response in a range of situations, including community and workplace settings.
