SIS40421 Certificate IV in Sport Development

About the Course

This qualification reflects the role of individuals who apply the skills and knowledge to pursue a career in sport development.

Functions for someone with this qualification can include liaising with stakeholder groups to increase the profile of sport, implementing and administering community sports programs, recruiting volunteers and participants and organising sport events.

This qualification provides a pathway to work as sport development officers and coordinators working in community-based sport organisations and clubs in the Australian sports industry. Individuals with this qualification possess a range of highly developed communication skills with sound sport industry knowledge. They work with independence, taking responsibility for their own functions and outputs.
